An Affair to Remember

chez vous one of New York's most exclusive off premise caterers is proud to add the Historic Edgewater Hall to its extensive list of available party sites.

Edgewater Hall, with its colorful historic background and landmark status, is an exclusive location for Chez Vous clients. Built in 1876, Edgewater Hall is located at 691 Bay Street. It was built as the original location of Staten Island Savings Bank and was later used as a speakeasy frequented by the Vanderbilts and Barrymores during the prohibition era.

The main hall of the three story Victorian building features tin ceilings, exposed brick walls, authentic French doors and windows, a glass enclosed porch, and solid maple floors.

The second and third floors are contemporary Manhattan style lofts with a comfortable yet unique feel and great views of the Verrazano Bridge.

Whether you select Edgewater Hall as your party site or you have your own unique type of location in mind, Chez Vous promises to plan your affair with distinction. We'll create the atmosphere you desire in your home, office, under a tent, or you may choose from our other exclusive party spaces which include posh mansions, castles, spacious lofts, or aboard a luxurious yacht.

More than just a caterer, Chez Vous is a complete party planning service. Call today to discuss the possibility of making your next affair everything you imagine.
